TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

Kyoto

- Kiyomizu Temple - is renowned for its construction which uses no nails to support the elaborate wooden structure of the main hall. And with a quaint old lane lined with pottery shops lead up to this famous temple.
- Fushimi Inari Taisha - the shrine sits at the base of a mountain also named Inari which is 233 meters above sea level. Early Japan, Inari was seen as the patron of business merchants and manufactures have traditionally worshipped Inari. Each of the torii at Fushimi Inari Taisha is donated by a Japanese business. First and foremost, though, Inari is the god of rice.

SHIRAKAWA-GO

- Shirakawa-go Village - the Historic Villages of Shirakawa-gō are one of Japan's UNESCO World Heritage Sites. These villages are well known for their houses constructed in the architectural style known as gash O-zukuri. The Gasshō-zukuri, "prayer-hands construction" style is characterized by a thatched and steeply slanting roof resembling two hands joined in prayer. The design is exceptionally strong and, in combination with the unique properties of the thatching, allow the houses to withstand and shed the weight of the region's heavy snowfalls in winter.

KYOTO

- Kiyomizu Temple - The temple is renowned for its construction which uses no nails to support the elaborate wooden structure of the main hall. And with a quaint old lane lined with pottery shops lead up to this famous temple. Nishijin Textile Centre (Kimono Show) - Here you can find a great variety of works created in the Nishijin Spirit, like Kimono & Kimono Sashes. And you could enjoy a Kimono show in the centre.

TATEYAMA KUROBE ALPINE

- Tateyama Kurobe Alpine Route - a famous mountain sightseeing route between Tateyama, Toyama and Omachi, Nagano, Japan. The route is just 37 km in length, but the vertical interval is as large as 1,975m. It uses 6 different public transports with 5 different modes, namely funicular, bus, trolleybus, aerial tramway, and walking. Take cable car from Tateyama Station to Bijodaira enjoy the Beautiful Woman Cedar viewing. Then highland bus to Murodo, and take tunnel trolley bus, you can enjoy the snow corridor. Then continue to journey by trolley bus to Daikanbo. Then take ropeway to Kurobedaira station. You can see the highest arch dam in Japan which about 1500m.

HAKONE

- Mt. Fuji 5th Station - At 3776 meters above sea level, the Fuji Subaru Line 5th Station offers a commanding view of the Fuji Five Lakes area below, making it a popular spot even for those who are not intent on climbing the mountain.
- Lake Ashi Pirate Cruise - Was formed in the caldera of Mount Hakone after the volcano's last eruption 3000 years ago. And the boat ride could enjoy dreams and romance while gazing upon the delights of Mt. Fuji.
