TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

TAIPEI

- Pingxi Train Station - Built in 1921 during Japanese colonial rule, the station sits in a picturesque locale, enveloped by verdant mountains and close to Shifen Waterfall. It draws tourists for its natural beauty, tradition of releasing sky lanterns, and historical significance.
- Jiufen Old Street - Renowned for its traditional tea-houses offering tea, snacks, and scenic mountain and sea views, Jiufen's unique atmosphere is believed to have inspired the setting of Studio Ghibli's "Spirited Away."

HUALIEN

- Taroko Archway - Commonly known as the "Taroko Archway" or "Taroko Gate," this structure signifies the start of the Taroko Gorge, offering visitors a grand and distinguished welcome to this extraordinary natural wonder.
- Qixingtian Scenic Area - Perfect for leisurely walks, picnics, and relaxation, surrounded by natural beauty. It offers a coastal park with paths, seating, and amenities for enjoying the shoreline. Nearby seafood restaurants serve up local cuisine with fresh catches from the sea.
- Dongdamen Night Market - Known for its diverse and mouthwatering street food options. Visitors can enjoy local Taiwanese snacks, seafood dishes, barbecued skewers, stinky tofu, bubble tea, and much more.

TAICHUNG

- Shen Ji New Village - Originally built for government employees. Recently revitalized, it's now a lively hub for young entrepreneurs, housing distinctive shops and studios. This thriving cultural and creative center also hosts weekend creative marketplaces, attracting visitors and fostering innovation.
- Miyahara - It's an architecture built by Miyahara Takeo, a Japanese ophthalmology doctor in 1927. Dawn Cake, a pastry company renowned for its pineapple cakes, acquired the building and preserved its original red-brick walls and archway. The interior decor was redesigned like Hogwarts in the movie Harry Potter.

NANTOU

- Sun Moon Lake - The lake is surrounded by lush greenery, rolling hills, and a serene, picturesque landscape. It is known for its clear blue waters, making it a perfect destination for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts.
- Wenwu Temple - Located at the shoulder of mountain on the north of Sun Moon Lake, this monumental temple was built in 1938.
