TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

ANGKOR WAT

- Angkor Thom - it is the most enduring capital of the Khmer Empire from the 9th to the 15th centuries. The Angkor City covers an area of 9 square kilometres and is surrounded by a 100-metres-wide, 6-metres-deep moat.
- South Gate of Angkor Thom - the South Gate is the most well-preserved and maintained among the five gates of Angkor Thom. The gate is 23 meters high. On the top is a huge four-faced Buddha statue with a serene smile that welcomes all who visit.
- Bayon Temple - built at the end of the 12th century, it is a temple built by King Jayavarman VII for himself. Here you can find not only the famous "Khmer smile" but also the rich and vivid relief sculptures on the cloisters.
- Phimeanakas Temple - a Hindu temple built at the end of the 10th century in the Khleang style during the reign of Rajendravarman, and then completed by Suryavarman I in the shape of a three-tier pyramid as a Hindu temple. On the edge of the top platform are incomplete galleries.
- Elephant Terrace - the parade platform of the ancient kings. Apart from the elephant reliefs, there are also relief sculptures such as life-sized garuda (bird-like creature) and lions.
- Terrace of the Leper King - located in the northeast corner of the ancient palace, the inner and outer walls are rich in relief sculptures. This unique double-sided relief is worthy of attentive viewing.
- Ta Prohm Temple (Tomb Raider Movie Filming Location) - Mother temple, is built by Jayavarman VII in honour of his mother. The temple is surrounded by trees which gives it a mysterious ambience.
- Angkor Wat Temple - is one of South East Asia's greatest world cultural heritage buildings. Famous for its magnificent architecture and detailed reliefs, it is also the largest temple in the world.

SIEM REAP

- Tonle Sap Lake - take boat to visit Floating Village, see the ways people living on floating house, school, church.
- Killing Field - once a significant Khmer Rouge killing field, and learn about the Khmer Rouge's reign of terror.
